FAILED SUBJECTS – TUTORING

1. An “F” grade is represented as a failure to meet the basic objectives of the course.
2. A student may be allowed to complete work in a subject in which he/she received an “F” by approval of the Principal if this will result in a change of retention-promotion or graduation:
 1. Repeating the subject as part of the student’s regular school schedule; however, only with approval of the Administration may subjects that are sequential be taken out of order. (Example: student taking trigonometry before geometry)
 2. Summer sessions at any high school offering programs acceptable to the School Administrator.
 3. Tutoring, in exceptional cases where no other arrangements can be made, by a certified teacher, and with the approval of the Principal, with the following minimum hours of instruction:
 - a. For two nine-week periods-failure in a subject-24 hours.
 - b. For three nine-week periods- failure in a subject- 36 hours.
