3. Guidelines

Teachers are to provide adequate directions and plans for substitutes; the purpose of which shall be to continue the ongoing program and/or provide a meaningful educational alternative that relates to specific objectives and standards normally addressed in the course at the time of the teacher's absence.

While consistency in lesson planning is desirable, no one lesson-planning template is appropriate for all types of instruction. All daily and unit lesson plans shall be comprehensive, reflecting current research and representing effective learning experiences for all students.

Guidelines for implementation of this policy shall include:

1. Format(s) for lesson plans shall be decided at the building level, i.e. school-wide formats, departmental formats, individual formats, or any combination.
2. While teachers are required to be thoroughly prepared for each daily lesson, plans may be prepared for each lesson or on a long-term basis, i.e. unit of work, whichever is most appropriate.
3. Material to be used in a lesson, including printed or digital items such as technology, texts, manipulatives, audiovisual resources etc., should be included in the plan.
4. Lesson plans for individualized programs should reflect a general overview and purpose of the instructional program; individual student records may serve as an integral part of the lesson plan.
5. Effective lesson plans include appropriate instructional approaches for a range of diverse learners.
